Winter CEU Program Presentation

Tiffany Reves, MA, LPC
will address

Worst Case Scenario: Teaching Parents to Survive Family Crisis

Working with children who have difficult behavior can be challenging for parents and professionals alike. This CEU seminar is designed to discuss survival skills for parents with a child in crisis. Included will be tips on crisis intervention and de-escalation techniques to keep the crisis to a minimum. The seminar will include a unique, interactive approach to integrating these techniques into therapy.

Thursday, February 19, 2009
